

The Loyal Blues Fellowship
Blues in the Schools Program
Presents

Rick Fines

Rick is one of Canada's leading blues, roots music and slide guitarists. He has been on the road playing for 23 years now. At 41, he is a veteran of the folk and blues circuits in North America. Rick won the Maple Blues Award for Acoustic Act of the Year twice ('98, '99) and was nominated three times for the Maple Blues Songwriter of the Year award. In 2004 Rick was nominated for the third time for Maple Blues Songwriter of the Year, as well as the Best Male Vocalist award. His 15 years with Jackson Delta won recognition from both the Juno and the Handy Awards.
